Dear Parents,

The Primary Curriculum is changing. At the moment, the NCCA (National Council for Curriculum and Assessment) are consulting with parents, teachers, school leaders and others about what the new Primary Curriculum should look like. They have published a Draft Primary Curriculum Framework which sets out plans for the new Primary Curriculum.

National Parents Council Primary would like to invite Parents of primary school children to take part in our online consultation on the proposed changes to the primary school curriculum.

The online session will take place, virtually, on the Tuesday the 5th of April 2022, from 7pm to 8.30pm.
