Nuachtlitir na Seachtaine 29.01.2021

A thuismitheoirí, a chairde,
Seachtain den scoth eile curtha isteach ag gach éinne ag Gaelscoil Chill Dara SA BHAILE. Go raibh míle maith agaibh go léir as ucht na suirbhéanna a líonadh, beimid ag déanamh iniúchadh ach caithfidh mé a rá go bhfuil sé go hiontach le feiceáil chomh dearfach is atá bhur n-aiseolas go dtí seo. Go raibh míle maith agaibh.
Bhí deacracht ag bunscoil i rith na seachtaine le zoom agus iarraim oraibh ár dtreoracha a léamh go cúramach arís, táimid ag leanúint leis na ceardlanna Zoom faoi láthair ach táimid eolach faoi na dúshláin agus an-aireach.
Mar is eol daoibh anois ní bheidh an foirgneamh scoile at athoscailt ar an Luan, leanfaimid leis an gCianfhoghlaim agus an Chianmhúineadh le #gscdsabhaile. Tá an Roinn ag obair le comhpháirtithe oideachais chun a chinntiú gur féidir leis na scoileanna uile athoscailt go hiomlán agus go sábháilte, ar aon dul le comhairle sláinte poiblí.
Tá súíl agam go mbeidh deireadh seachtaine álainn agaibh agus bainigí sult as Scéal an Lae agus Cupán Tae anseo.
Beannachtaí na Féile Bríde oraibh go léir.

Another fantastic week completed here at Gaelscoil Chill Dara sa bhaile. I would like to say a ‘Go raibh míle maith agaibh’ to you all for filling in the surveys, we will be reviewing the feedback but I must say how positive your feedback has been so far. GRMA
During the week an Irish primary school had an issue with Zoom and I ask that you read over the instructions again, we are continuing with the Zoom sessions but we are aware of the challenges and are being very careful.
As you all know now, the school building won’t be reopening on Monday, we will continue with virtual learning and teaching #gscdsabhaile. The Department are working with educational partners to ensure that all schools can open fully and safely, taking into consideration the public health advice.
I hope that you have a lovely weekend and enjoy ‘Scéal an Lae agus Cupán Tae’ (Story of the Day and a Cup of Tea) anseo.

Happy St. Brigid’s Day to you all.
